

EXTENSION OF WORKING USERS FOR INFORMATION AND CONSULTATION OF EMPLOYEES

Valeri Apostolov¹

Abstract:

The interest in the obligation of employers to inform and consult employees is not accidental. In today's global economy, the concept of information and consultation and participation of employees is an integral part of the acquis communautaire, and as such, it is an essential element of the European social model. The purpose of this study is to analyze, the legal requirement for the application of the right to information and consultation in Bulgarian enterprises. The main conclusions relate to the benefits of implementing information and consultation, as factors for improving the quality of work and also, as a key tool, for increasing business competitiveness.

Key words: economics and labor organization, labor law, labor-management relations, workers' rights.

JEL: J50; J83; K31; L21

¹ Chief Assistant Professor Valeri Apostolov PhD, Department of Human Resources and Social Protection University of National and World Economy, e-mail: valeriapostolov@unwe.bg