

CHALLENGES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE IN THE LABOUR MARKET IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

Desislava Nikolova Koleva-Stefanova ¹

Abstract

This article concerns widely discussion issues related to the career prospects and employment of young people from the European Union. The article sets out some active labour policies with a focus on young people entering the labour market. The development provides a comparative analysis between the 28 EU Member States on key indicators characterising the labour market for 2018. On the basis of the research carried out, some conclusions and recommendations for the positive impact on successful labour realization among the young population are indicated.

Keywords: labour market; youth unemployment; social exclusion; human capital

JEL: J21; J24

¹ Desislava Koleva-Stefanova, Chief Assistant, Department of Human Resources and Social Protection University of National and World Economy, stefanova_desi@abv.bg